

CAMP WASHINGTON, in operation since 1917, is a coed resident camp and retreat center operated by the Episcopal Church in Connecticut as an outreach ministry open to all faith traditions.

Located on 300 acres in the Litchfield Hills, in the summer, you will find a camp where campers can take a break from their routine, make new friends, deepen their faith, have fun, learn new skills and return home with memories that will last a lifetime!

Camp Washington is licensed by the State of Connecticut and fully accredited by the American Camp Association.

CAMP WASHINGTON Summer Camp

PROGRAM GOALS

AT CAMP WASHINGTON, WE STRIVE TO...

- Provide a place where children and staff can grow closer to God as revealed in Jesus Christ by providing opportunities for both community worship and personal exploration
- Provide a place where individuals can enjoy themselves in an outdoor setting and grow individually by stressing personal involvement, education, and creativity
- Provide a community in which individuals can learn the values of team work, interdependence, and independence by providing opportunities for camp-wide play, instilling communal ownership of camp facilities, and developing a sense of community amongst campers and staff
- Help each person recognize their responsibility to be better stewards of God's creation
